

Roger Meade Vrooman

Birth: Jul. 23, 1943
Death: May 2, 2000

LT COL US AIR FORCE
VIETNAM

Roger M. Vrooman, left this life on May 2, 2000 at age 56. A graduate of Edison High School and the Air Force Academy, he was a career officer reaching the rank of Lt. Col. After serving in Vietnam, he was awarded many medals including the Meritorious Service Medal, Air Medal and Gallantry Cross. He later was Chief Navigator at the Air Base in South Carolina. Retiring after 22 years of service, he most recently worked for Lockheed Martin. Survived by: his sons, Tim Impinna and Jeff Vrooman and their mother, Judith Vrooman. Brother of Roscoe Vrooman, Jon Vrooman and Elizabeth Enochs, all of Tulsa, and dear son of the late Roscoe Sr. and Margaret Vrooman. His service was at Golden Gate Cemetery in San Francisco. As a father, brother and son, he was unparalleled.
(Tulsa World, Tulsa, OK)

Burial:
Golden Gate National Cemetery
San Bruno
San Mateo County
California, USA
Plot: Section V Site 1587