DEAR VIVIAN,

We were the Depression Kids. We grew up in a make-do era, spare of excess. Nothing that could be repaired or patched was thrown away. Many of us owned just two pair shoes, one for everyday use and one for Sunday. Many owned not even that. You were always rich with love and giving and nobody can compare or come close to the example you have set for goodness in your life. God Bless you and farewell dear sister.

Lovingly
Brother - Scott
