

Services for Leon Fitzhugh, a retired shipping clerk for a lumber company, will be held at 2 p.m. today at the Kirkley funeral establishment, 421 Crain highway, S.E., in Glen Burnie.

Mr. Fitzhugh, who was 80 and lived in the 1300 block Howard road in Harundale, died Saturday at a nursing home after an illness of several months.

He retired about 15 years ago from the Weyerhaeuser Company after working in its Fairfield facility for 40 years.

Mr. Fitzhugh was a native of Woolford, near Cambridge.

He was a member of the Glen Burnie Lodge of the Masons and a hunter, fisherman and sports fan with a special interest in the Orioles.

His wife, the former Doris C. Mattingly, died in 1976.

He is survived by 3 daughters, Geneva Hall, of Baltimore, Mary Bell Wilbur, of Fort Myers Beach, Fla., and Joyce Langhage, of Mount Airy; 4 sons, T. Gordon Fitzhugh, of Ferndale, John F. Fitzhugh, of Harundale, R. Wayne Fitzhugh, of Baltimore Highlands, and Edward L. Fitzhugh, of Glen Burnie Park; a sister, Lula Brannock, of Woolford; 17 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

William Otis Harris

Services for William Otis Harris, a retired steel mill mechanic, will be held at 10 a.m. today at the Duda-Ruck funeral establishment, 7922 Wise avenue in Dundalk.

Mr. Harris, who was 67 and lived in the 7600 block Gum road in Dundalk, died Sunday at Franklin Square Hospital after an illness of more than six months.

He retired four years ago from ARMCO, Inc., where he had worked for 37 years.

A native of Yanceyville, N.C., he came to Baltimore in the late 1930s while serving in the Army.

He is survived by his wife, the former Vivian L. Lark; two sons, Jack B. Harris, of Cocoa, Fla., and W. Scott Harris, of Beltsville; a daughter, Irene V. Jones, of Parkville; two brothers, George M. Harris, of Yanceyville, and Raymond T. Harris, of Burlington, N.C.; two sisters, Inez Powel, of Burlington, and Louise Powell, of Fallston, and four grandchildren.

Beverly Mac Minn

Beverly Beach Mac Minn, a resident of the Baltimore area for 34 years, died yesterday at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center after an illness of three months.

A memorial service for Mrs. Mac Minn, who was 68 and lived in the 800 block Litchfield road in Stoneleigh, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the chapel of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Charles street and Melrose avenue.

Born in Scranton, Pa., and raised in Miami, she was educated at the Gunston Hall Academy, in Washington, and the Baldwin School, in Bryn Mawr, Pa.

She was a collector in her area for the American Cancer Society.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Peter Trussell, of Bel Air; a brother, Herbert L. Beach, of Medford, Ore., and three grandchildren.

The family suggests that memorial donations be made to the Church of the Redeemer.

The Sun, 8 Oct 1980

Clipped By:

CiHartman

Tue, Jan 19, 2021